

Managing the Inland Search Function

The requisite course for everyone that directs search operations.

December 2-3 & 9-10, 2017

Hosted by Upper San Juan SAR

Class Location:

Archuleta County EOC
777 County Road 600
Pagosa Springs, Colorado

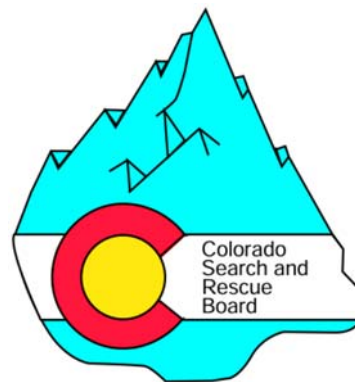

Course fee includes class materials including the MISF textbook

This class requires a minimum of 9 students and is limited to 30 students.

Topics Include:

- Concepts of Effective Search Management
- Probability Assessment
- SAR Resources and Communications
- Preplanning
- Determining Search Urgency
- Lost Subject Behavior
- Search Area Segmentation
- Probabilities of Detection
- Search Theory
- Applying SAR Resources
- Documentation
- Managing External Influences
- Suspending the Mission
- Four Map Exercises

Presented by the Colorado Search and Rescue Board

www.coloradoSARboard.org

Probability of Area x Probability of Detection = Probability of Success!

Pagosa Springs, Colorado

All registrations will be done through the CSRB website at:

www.coloradosarboard.org

Cost: $ 150.00 for CSRB Members / $ 200.00 for non-CSRB members

Registrations must be submitted by Nov 1, 2017

Scholarships:

- Ten (10) Scholarships of $75.00 are available to all CSRB Members for this course
- Scholarship applications must be submitted online through the CSRB website
- Each SAR Team, Sheriff's Office, other Associate Agencies and Individuals are eligible for these funds
- Each SAR Team, Sheriff's Office and Associate Agencies are limited to four (4) scholarships
- Scholarship funds will be paid after confirmation that the person has completed the class

Schedule: 8:00 - 6:00. Attendance required all four days.

Course questions: Greg Foley,
(970) 531-1555,
greg.foley@grandcountysar.com

Directions, local questions:
Mike Leroux - mileroux@archuletacounty.org

Area lodging: Multiple lodging options available.

Colorado Search and Rescue Board
700 Colorado Blvd. #197
Denver, CO 80206
Training for the SAR Professional

